ORPINGTON RECORDED MUSIC SOCIETY

Founded in 1937

PRESIDENT: MALCOLM RUTHVEN

Programme: August – December 2019

August 12 : "The renovation of Spanish music in the first half of the 20th century is unthinkable without the presence of Manuel de Falla."

Ray Picot, Secretary of the Iberian & Latin American Music Society

The early 20th century was an exciting time as a new generation of artists took Spain out of cultural isolation. New musical ideas were explored, resulting in the creation of a distinctive and vibrant music scene; a progress which ended suddenly with the Civil War.

September 2 : Memories of the Wigmore Peter Vinnels

September 16 : "Greater than stars or suns" – a travelogue through Vaughan Williams' 'A Sea Symphony' David Coronel

Note: the programme aims to include a complete performance of the symphony.

September 30 : The final throws of expressionism……and what followed… - Greta Bayley

October 14 : Meeting or Festival ? - the history of the the Three Choirs

Peter Avis, Writer & Broadcaster

October 28 : Orchestral Manoeuvres Malcolm Ruthven, President ORMS

In his early twenties Malcolm embarked on a career in orchestral management, and for the next seven years worked successively with the LSO, the RPO and the Ulster Orchestra. Contemporary recordings illustrate his entertaining and revealing recollections.

November 11 : Annual General Meeting, followed by the Chairman's choice of music

November 25 : Scotch snaps PhilGray

December 9 : Christmas Party

MEETINGS TAKE PLACE AT THE ORPINGTON CONSERVATIVE ASSOCIATION, 6 SEVENOAKS ROAD, ORPINGTON, KENT BR6 9JJ – PROGRAMMES COMMENCE AT 7.45 PM.