HOW TO FIND US
at Littleover Baptist Community Hall

Thornhill Road is off Burton Road about 600 yards west of the ring road (A5111). Coming from the ring road it is the third turning on the left after the Iceland store. There is a direction sign to the Church opposite the end of Thornhill Road. For SatNav use postcode DE23 6FZ.

There is a small parking area next to the Church, and street parking is possible in Thornhill Road and Old Hall Road. Convenient buses from the City centre are Trent Barton's 'Harlequin' from Gower Street and V3 from the bus station, together with Arriva's 5A from Babington Lane; alight at Iceland – the second stop after the ring road.

JUBILEE MUSIC CIRCLE

January to June 2019

FRMS

Affiliated to the Federation of Recorded Music Societies

The Jubilee Music Circle takes its name from its formation in the Queen's Diamond Jubilee year, 2012. It is a successor to the Derby Music Circle which was founded as Derby Recorded Music Society in 1945.

Meetings take place at Littleover Baptist Community Hall, Thornhill Road, Littleover, DE23 6FZ, on the second* Tuesday afternoon of the month, starting at 2.15 pm.

The annual membership subscription is £25 and in addition members pay £4 at each meeting they attend. Visitors are welcome to attend any two meetings as temporary members (to comply with copyright licensing conditions) for which there is a small additional charge, which is deducted from the subscription if they then join as full members.

* Occasionally, meetings may be held instead on the first or third Tuesday of the month.

8th January: CURIOSITIES – SCENE 2
As always with Keith Shillcock's programmes, expect the unexpected.

12th February: "A FULL ENGLISH"
Some tasty morsels of English secular music covering the Medieval and Renaissance periods and through to the middle Baroque era, served by Colin Sharvell.

12th March: ANNIVERSARIES 2019
Allan Child marks not only the 150th anniversary of the death of Berlioz, but also the bicentenary of the births of Clara Wieck Schumann, Franz von Suppé and Jacques Offenbach. Other anniversaries falling in 2019 may also feature in this programme.

9th April: AGM
We hope the business will not take too long, so as to leave time for some music to follow.

14th May: BBC (but not Auntie) in AMERICA
Colin Sharvell explores music by Samuel Barber, Amy Beach and Aaron Copland.

4th JUNE: "DON'T GIVE UP THE DAY JOB"
NB – meeting on the FIRST Tuesday this month
Music by, among others, a chemist, an insurance salesman and an orthopaedic surgeon feature in this programme by Allan Child.

A date for your diary: 5th-8th April, FRMS Yorkshire & NW Region Music Weekend in Ilkley
