The Society is affiliated to The Federation of Recorded Music Societies

The Federation holds musical events both on a National and Regional level.
Visit the website: www.thefrms.co.uk
and the webpage for the Wolverhampton Recorded Music Society:
www.thefrms.co.uk/affprogs/wvlhamtn.htm

The Society has been in existence since the 1930s. Our meetings consist of short explanatory talks, listening to classical recorded music and watching DVDs of opera and ballet, using the Society's own high fidelity and projection equipment.

Visitors are always very welcome to join us for an evening, without obligation. There is an interval when refreshments are served.

Meetings are held on Fridays, starting at 7.30pm at Tettenhall Wood Institute, Wood Road, Tettenhall Wood, Wolverhampton WV6 8LW.

Subscriptions:
£5.00 per annum
Weekly charge: £2.00
