

Programme for Spring 2018

Meetings are held monthly on Saturdays
at Dower Court, William Plows Avenue, Heslington Road,
York YO10 5AD
2.00pm to around 4.30pm.

January 13th
The Music Which Nearly Disappeared

Clarinettist Lesley Schatzberger charts the rise, fall and resurrection of the musical world of Jewish communities in central and Eastern Europe - more recently known as klezmer.

February 10th
Werner Egk (1901-83): Opportunist or Reactionary?

He brought his son up to be critical of the Nazis, yet Egk became a prominent musician in the Third Reich and this position of influence continued through the 50s and 60s. James Murray will illustrate his talk with several of Egk's most colourful works which demonstrate an eclectic style ranging from avant-garde to Bavarian folk taking in big band jazz, French Baroque, North African & Caribbean along the way.

March 3rd
Leonard Bernstein, Musician

This year marks the centenary of the birth of Leonard Bernstein. David Archer invites you to share in a celebration of the life of a great composer, conductor, teacher, educator and broadcaster.

April 7th
Music and Mythology

Irene Parkin presents a programme inspired by myths and legends from various parts of the world with music by composers such as Sibelius, Dvorak, Grieg, Offenbach and Copland.

May 5th
'FJ': Music and Memories

Philip Paul presents an appreciation of Francis Jackson; organist, choirmaster and composer at York Minster for 36 years, who celebrated his 100th birthday in October 2017.

For more information please contact
Gavin Mist
Tel. 01904 653193
E-mail pix-sounds@gavinmist.com