

Programme for Spring 2019

Meetings are held monthly on Saturdays
at Dower Court, William Plows Avenue, Heslington Road,
York YO10 5AD
2.00pm to around 4.30pm.

January 12th
You Can't Be Serious!

Irene Parkin starts off the New Year in lighter vein with a selection of music of a humorous nature, classical and otherwise!

February 2nd
A Fine Romance with Jerome Kern

Kern's biographer Stephen Banfield has called Jerome Kern (1885 – 1945) "a founding father of the modern American musical" and although his shows (excepting the ground-breaking Show Boat) are now largely forgotten, his most popular songs are familiar to all. James Murray traces Kern's remarkable career from Broadway to the West End and Hollywood with the aid of numerous illustrations of historic productions and recordings both old and new.

March 9th
Camille Saint-Saëns – A Melodic Composer

After questioning our understanding of 'Programme Music' (with a quiz on a popular work), Arthur Kay presents varied excerpts of Saint-Saëns' music to discover his high standards of form, style and workmanship resulting in, above all, a melodic composer.

April 13th
Raise a Glass!

In a tribute to the American composer Philip Glass, David Archer explores Glass' music for theatre and film and his collaborative work with Ravi Shankar as well as his concertos and symphonies.

May 11th
The Legge Legacy

Guest speaker Jim Bostwick presents a selection from the life's work of legendary record producer Walter Legge, "the autocrat of the turntable."
