Friday 21st June
Members' Choice
A selection of favourites old and new

Friday 28th June
Annual General Meeting

Friday 5th July
John Nockels
"Ask not for whom the bell tolls"
Resounding music by Bizet, Mussorgsky and others

Friday 12th July
Keith Porteous
The Three Piano Concertos of Tchaikovsky
Chairman's Closing Programme

The Society is affiliated to The Federation of Recorded Music Societies

The Federation holds musical events both on a National and Regional level.
Visit the website: www.thefrms.co.uk
and the webpage for the Wolverhampton Recorded Music Society:
www.thefrms.co.uk/wvlhamtn.htm

The Society has been in existence since the 1930s. Our meetings consist of short explanatory talks, listening to classical recorded music and watching DVDs of opera and ballet, using the Society's own high fidelity and projection equipment.

Visitors are always very welcome to join us for an evening, without obligation. There is an interval when refreshments are served.

Meetings are held on Fridays, starting at 7.30pm at Tettenhall Wood Institute, Wood Road, Tettenhall Wood, Wolverhampton WV6 8LW.

Subscriptions:
£10.00 per annum (Concessions £5.00)
Weekly charge: £2.00

Committee Members:

Chairman
Keith Porteous (01902) 750130

Vice Chairman
Norma Webster (01902) 460525

Secretary
John Nockels (01902) 758674

Treasurer
Jill Dodds (01902) 844556
Trevor Cattell
Darren Finlan
David Gregory
David Makepeace
Andrew Milligan

Wolverhampton Recorded Music Society

PROGRAMME
January - July 2019
Fridays at 7.30pm

Enquiries to the Society's Secretary:
John Nockels
Tel: (01902) 758674
Email: j.s.nockels@blueyonder.co.uk

Meetings are held at Tettenhall Wood Institute,
Wood Road, Tettenhall Wood
Wolverhampton WV6 8LW

Follow us on Facebook

Friday 11th January
Chairman's Opening Programme
Music to Celebrate the New Year

Friday 18th January
Trevor Cattell
3 is a Magic Number
An exploration of the number in a variety of musical genres

Friday 25th January Early Start
David Gregory
Mlada
A DVD presentation of Rimsky-Korsakov's fantasy opera-ballet

Friday 1st February
Norma Webster
Music from Hungary
The unique contribution of Hungarian composers and performers

Friday 8th February
John Nockels
Music from Pictures; Pictures from Music
Including works by Brahms and Reger

Friday 15th February
Darren Finlan
Two Contrasting Women Composers
Hildegard of Bingen and Lili Boulanger

Friday 22nd February Early Start
David Gregory
Albert Herring
A DVD presentation of Benjamin Britten's comic opera

Friday 1st March
Allison Smith
Lords A-Leaping, Ladies Dancing
Dance tunes from Tudor times to modern showstoppers

Friday 8th March
Michael Rogers
'Incomplete' Music II
Including the final movement of Bruckner's final symphony

Friday 15th March
English Touring Opera
A presentation on the work of the company, anticipating its visit to Wolverhampton

Friday 22nd March
Trevor Cattell
DNA Music
A programme reflecting the DNA profile of the presenter

Friday 29th March
Neil Moreland
Classical Meets Jazz
An appreciation of performers, formats and interactions between the two genres

Friday 5th April
Christopher Morley
Did Mozart Burn Himself Out?

Friday 12th April
Darren Finlan
Purcell: the English Worthy
A programme devoted to the father of British music

Friday 19th April
Good Friday No Meeting

Friday 26th April
John Nockels
In Stalin's Shadow
Shostakovich in the dark years 1948-1953

Friday 3rd May
Holiday Weekend No Meeting

Friday 10th May
Keith Porteous
A Tribute to John Binns
A programme recalling John's love of English and Czech music

Friday 17th May
David Makepeace
Nocturne...and other things of the night

Friday 24th May
Holiday Weekend No Meeting

Friday 31st May
Trevor Cattell
Garden Music II
Music suggested by life in the garden

Friday 7th June
Norma Webster
Music from the Czech Lands
Music composed by and/or performed by Czech musicians

Friday 14th June
Michael Rogers
"In the flower of their youth"
Early works by great composers, including Handel, Mendelssohn and Mozart